

2024 Summer Drama Information & Registration

Performance dates are July 18 - 21

Purpose & Mission

AGLOW Theater is a southwest metro area homeschool community aspiring to produce Biblically sound plays that reveal God and His truths in unusual, delightful, profound, and creative ways. By expounding and dissecting the Biblical truths in the scripts through discussion and character development, we hope that students will gain more understanding and insight regarding the word of God and their place in God's plan. This is also an opportunity for students to create new friendships, be challenged, encouraged, and grow in the venue of the theatrical disciplines.

Ages

Homeschooled students ages 10-18 and by invitation.

Family involvement & expectations

AGLOW Theater could not happen without parents pitching in and helping with this production at some level. Whether it is praying, promoting, selling concessions, collecting props, or managing the actors – there is a place for you.

- Serve in at least one position (i.e. costumes, programs. Will discuss in greater detail at the Parent Meeting on May 10).
- Three adults will be present at each rehearsal to assist the director in running lines with actors and assuring that students stay safe. Each family (mom, dad, responsible older sibling) must commit to attending 3 rehearsals during the season.
- One parent must attend Costume Day, exact date in June to be determined. AGLOW does have a costume closet that will provide the actors with a good start on their costume. However, on Costume Day, the director shares her vision for costumes of each character, and it is the parent's responsibility to find and collect the remaining items needed for their child's costume. However, we intend to help each other find costume pieces.
- Families are expected to help out on performance days. We will update you as the details develop.
- Families support the concessions by providing a $10 - $20 donation. More details to come.

LEGAL WAIVER

 2023 Legal Waiver and Medical Release Form

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. ~ Romans 12: 1-2
